College Preparation - Where are you?

- I have a portfolio with records of academic, community and other accomplishments?
- I have reviewed college options with a plan to pursue post high school education?
- My PSAT/SAT/ACT scores and GPA match my post high school education goals?
- I have taken the ASVAB or other career interest surveys?
- I am on track for high school graduation?
- I have drafted college and scholarship essays?
- I have reviewed or contacted schools for in-state residency requirements?
- I have discussed completing the FAFSA, college costs and options with my parents?
- I have identified scholarships for which I qualify and have completed applications?
- My social and community contributions will enhance my college application?
- I am working with a mentor, my parents or an adviser to assist me in post high school decisions?

Yes is the best answer for college-ready students. High school freshmen have more room for error. RED: 0-3 AMBER: 4-6 GREEN: 7-11
